KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1911.

NUMBER 5

Capt. Conquest.
Miss Mabel Voss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Voss of west town, a member of the Senior class in the high school here, surprised her class mates Wednesday morning by inviting them to witness the ceremony of her marriage to Arthur Friesz, a son of Adam Friesz of west of here, which took place at the residence of Rev. Frank Mitchell who spoke the words making the couple one. After the ceremony the young bridegroom invited members of the High school faculty and the bride's class mates to twelve o'clock dinner at the Brown hotel. There were seventeen in the merry bridal party. These young people are representatives of our very best rural citizens and the Courier wishes them a long and happy married life.

Rev. E. C. Gordon D. D.
Secretary of Home Missions for the Synod of Missouri, formerly President of Westminster College, and late pastor of the Presbyterian church at Lexington, Mo., will preach at the Presbyterian church in this place, next Sunday morning and evening. At the morning service the communion will be administered. A cordial invitation to attend these services is extended to all. Members of the church especially are urged not to fail to be present.

Come in and get Keytesville Lumber Co., to figure on your lumber bill. They bought before the advance in lumber and are therefore in a better position to take care of your wants than others less fortunate.

Sunda, Sunda.
A certain masculine member of our high school faculty yielded to an almost forgotten boyish impulse last Sunday afternoon and listen oh ye lads and lassies! took a dare. The said dare having been given by a certain young man not long since a school boy, the two of them "hopped" a Wabash freight train and "bummed" their way to Brunswick! Yes, truly. Having arrived at the River City, strange to relate, the hobo fashion of traveling did not appeal to them as an inviting return transit and they counted up their finances. Having a total of 80 cents, they voted to return via the plush seat car rather than the box car and did so. Mr. Shank's pony brought them up the long mile and a half to their native village.

Roy Williams, a notorious negro character of Keytesville, struck Wm. Cooley, a coal miner of north of town, in the face Monday, in the alley between Geo. M. Dewey's hardware and Robt. Halley's grocery, and skipped for parts unknown before he could be apprehended by the officers of the law. We did not learn the nature of the quarrel but if it will be the means of ridding Keytesville of Roy forever everybody will say amen.

John R. Derry of Carrollton was in our city Monday. Mr. Derry was formerly a resident of this county, mine host of the Triplett hotel and postmaster at that city.

Don't neglect to have a look at the quality of the lumber that is handled by the Keytesville Lumber Co.

Miss Anna Rucker who broke her limb last August is having more than her share of ill luck. Sunday morning while walking with her crutches from her residence to that of Mrs. Mike Cook, her crutch crashed through a thin plank in front of the Methodist parsonage and in attempting to steady herself without falling, Miss Anna threw her weight on her recently broken limb and in some manner sprained her knee. Miss Rucker suffered terribly from her injury, almost without relief for 24 hours.

WESTERN ARTISTS IN PARIS.

Many Missourians are Studying Music and Painting There.

The Missouri colony in Paris threatens to undergo a number of changes in the near future. Miss Maud Mann, who has been studying piano with Thelma Burrham, the widely known American teacher who has been in Paris since last June, expects to go to Berlin soon. Before returning to the United States she may also go to Vienna, continuing her study of the Lachetzky method either with the great teacher himself or one of his assistants.

Miss Mann expects to make her permanent home in Missouri. She was born in Keytesville and for a number of years was principal of the piano department of Prichett College in Glasgow, Mo. Later she held a similar position in Logan College at Russellville, Ky. She has appeared in recitals here several times and has won high praise.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Rieger expect to go to London about April 1, remaining till after the coronation. Later they may go to Italy for a few months. They expect to be back in Kansas City October 1 and "Mrs. Louise Rieger," as Mrs. Rieger is known to the Paris musical critics, will then resume her teaching at home.

The Misses Ruth and Lucile Herring of Brunswick, Mo., who have been here since last fall, probably will return home next summer. Miss Ruth Herring is studying piano with Miss Madeline Prosser, formerly of Kansas City, and Miss Lucile is a pupil of Tudor Hart, the painter.

Miss Fay Foster, formerly of Leavenworth, Kas., who won a prize in a Berlin waltz competition a few weeks ago, will sail for New York next Saturday. Since coming to Paris Miss Foster has heard that Johann Strauss was so pleased with her waltz that he orchestrated it and it is now being played by his orchestra every night.—Kansas City Star.

A. Shupbeck of four miles north of town will hold a public sale Wednesday for which he had bills printed at this office. Elsewhere in our columns note his big advertisement. Mr. Shupbeck will move with his family to Collinsville, Okla. He is one of our representative citizens, and we very much regret his departure from our county, but wish him every success in his new home.
